Thanks David. I understand the Administrator wants a briefing on this topic soon, with some proposed recommendations. I'm hearing potentially by the end of the week. Are folks available for a discussion tomorrow? I have very little background on the specific dispute, and need to know whether an options-style briefing on the topic is possible within that timeframe. I have a few briefings up in the air at the moment, but to begin the bidding, how does between 10:30 and noon (est) tomorrow work, or between 1 and 2 (est)?

Dave
